BUSHWALKERS PRESIDENT'S REPORT – 2021

Thank you to all our usual office bearers. Once again, they have been wonderful.

Thank you as well to John Rideout for keeping up our technical things – our website, our changing COVID policies, our PLBs. He gets a special mention because what he does is not even an official position.

The Facebook page contributors are also working in a non-official capacity. Our Facebook page has resulted in many new members. It's probably the one that draws in most of our new members.

I also want to thank walk leaders and say how much I cherish those who organise extended walks. Not only do they do the research to work out where to walk and how to achieve it, but also accommodation, transport, and all the related money matters. They usually pay up front and assume they'll get their money back. If you've been on some of these wonderful trips, consider organising one.

I am pleased to see that some of the newer and younger members are starting to lead trips and accept nominations on the executive and management committee. I hope more will follow. Those who have done so, obviously have asked themselves, not only, "What can the club do for me?" but also, "What can I do for the club?" This club works only if its members contribute. So, I ask every member to think about how they can contribute, not forever, and not alone, but at least, do your turn.

I have now done 10 years on the executive; 3 years treasurer, 4 years secretary, 3 years president. I regard 10 years as a milestone, so I do not seek re-election. I thank all who have supported me for that time – Pauline Toop

An extra note from Pauline

I would like to say a special thank-you to Anna and Megan. Some time ago, the club brought in a limit of three years as the length of time an executive member can hold the same position as this should be shared around. Anna and Megan have both done their three years. The management committee passed a by-law allowing them to continue, which they have done for the sake of the club. We will need a new secretary and treasurer for next year. Please consider.

Once again, thank you, Anna and Megan."

Walk Reports

CONONDALE RANGE GREAT WALK

By Pauline Toop

Twelve members of Capricornia Bushwalkers went off on this 4-day walk, 15 – 20 April 2021.

This beautiful walk was perfectly organised by Cheryl right down to the details of the last car seat. Four-wheel drives are preferable for the creek crossings to get to the walk. Thank you, Tony and Dave. Ian Ellis helped out with car shuffles. Thank you, Ian.

Before starting – a day’s drive down, accommodation before and after at Kenilworth pub – a “basic” pub with lots of atmosphere, nice meals, and perfect for our needs. Lovely little spot, Kenilworth. When finished, a day’s drive back to Rocky.

The walk was mainly through rainforest with some parts open eucalypt forest. The track was generally well maintained by National Parks although in some places trees fell upon the track, resulting in frustrated and comical efforts to make progress around the blocked sections.

Through that beautiful rainforest, I myself didn’t see much of the canopy. Afraid I’d lose my balance, or slip or trip on tree roots or slippery clay if I looked up at all. At eye level, I saw the rainforest racing past beside me. For much of the walk, as I was a slower walker, I could only look at the forest floor to see where I was stepping. It was a beautiful forest floor covered in golden brown leaves fallen from the canopy – and seeds and seedpods, wattle, eucalypt, soap tree, lilly-pilly fruit, quandong, bits of bunya nut to name but a few. There was a rich array of fungi, ferns, moss and lichen covered logs, and huge buttresses on strangler figs, and a little higher up, elkhorns and bird’s nest ferns.

There was a rich array of wildlife. The forest was rarely silent. Birdsong rang out day after day. We heard the crystal clear tink-tink of bellbirds (Bell Miners), the whoop and crack of whipbirds, and the haunting cry of catbirds, as well as plentiful little chattering birds. We saw some goannas and other lizards, snakes, and frogs, butterflies and dragonflies, but the most prolific were the leeches – hundreds of them. At times, we dare not stand still, we dare not sit down, they were so numerous. Though we didn’t hold competitions, we were interested in who had the most leech bites, the biggest. We researched leeches on Google, such was our interest. The mosquitoes buzzed around but, strangely, rarely bit. There were a few ticks – not many.

Some curiosities: There were relics of the timber industry, some machinery left from long ago. In contrast, there was some modern art work, in the middle of nowhere – a very large rock cairn with a strangler fig planted on top of it.

There were swimming holes to be swum in and these were enjoyed by the faster walkers and those who didn't mind the cold.

It rained a bit (being a rainforest) so we got a little wet but not much. Some of us got a little sore, but again not much. The group was very fit, very organised, and very considerate and helpful to each other – a lovely group.

As I write this just home from the walk, in one month many of those on the trip will be off to Larapinta. They're already fast and fit walkers. By the time they've done the Larapinta, they'll be able to leap tall buildings with a single bound.

Conondale Range Great Walk is indeed a great walk, all made possible for us by someone researching and organising not only the walk itself, but also the accommodation, transport, camp site bookings, and financial matters.
Thank you, Cheryl.

Notes from Facebook

Mount Birkbeck to Bloxsom Street, April 2021

The lush, green and at times, thick vegetation found along our path from Mt Birkbeck to Bloxsom St today is the result of recent rains. The long grass hid many a rock but at the same time, provided for the odd soft landing.

Thanks to Pauline for another great outing.
